Module 4: December 5 and 6, 2020

CEs (12 hours) are available.

Training participants will develop:
- Basic proficiency in CAPACITAR wellness practices: Tai Chi, EFT Tapping, polarity, visualization, energy exercises, listening skills, acupressure, and breathwork.
- Understanding and integration of theories and methods that form the basis of CAPACITAR work: trauma theory, energy field theory, new cosmology, multicultural wellness, leadership development, healing systems, popular education.
- Self-care skills for the caregiver, minister, educator, counselor and outreach worker.
- Use of CAPACITAR methods in clinical, professional and community settings.
- Facility in using a popular education model through a practicum in the community.
- Community and global vision and a commitment to one’s own personal healing.

The program is for professionals or volunteers focused on caregiving, community outreach, ministry to the elderly, work with poverty, physical or mental health issues, abuse, trauma or violence. The healing, education, ministry, psychology, social work and spirituality practitioners are able to apply the methods immediately to the populations with whom they work.
